

Setting priorities in cancer prevention and control

In this session, we will discuss the importance and basic principles of priority setting and how it applies to cancer prevention and control. We will highlight the main WHO initiatives and tools that are available for evidence-informed decision-making in a context of scarce resources.

Chair

Dr Filip Meheus

Health economist
Economic Evaluation and Analysis Unit (EEA)
Health Systems Governance and Financing Department
WHO

Guest Speakers

Dr André Ilbawi

Cancer Team Lead
Cancer Control Unit
WHO Department for Management of Non communicable Diseases, Disability,
Violence and Injury Prevention
WHO

Dr Cindy Gauvreau

Senior Research Associate/Health Economist
Child Health Evaluative Sciences Program
The Hospital for Sick Children Research
Institute